There are houses - and there are places with history. If you are looking for a home that combines character, generous space, and tranquility, then you will find something truly exceptional here. This impressive manor house offers not just living space, but a lifestyle where style, tradition, and opportunity come together.

The main building offers approximately 308 m² of living space and stands out with its classic architecture, high ceilings, and elegant, timeless atmosphere. The spacious rooms create a sense of openness and calm - ideal for those who want to live consciously, not just reside. The layout is clear and highly functional: multiple large living and sleeping areas, a representative salon, dining area, and additional rooms offer a wide range of possibilities - whether as a private residence, a retreat, or for representative purposes.

The property is complemented by a separate guest house, providing additional flexibility. It includes a living area with kitchen, a bedroom, dressing room, bathroom, and technical and storage spaces. Perfect for guests, extended family, or as an independent living unit.

The nearly 19,900 m² plot offers an exceptional ...
